

Dear Parent/Carer,

As you will be aware, in January several days were set aside in February and March by the NEU for teachers to take industrial action in light of current pay disputes. The next dates that affect our region is Wednesday, 15th and Thursday, 16th March. Following our previous email, a few changes have been made to students learning.

Wednesday, 15th March	Thursday, 16th March
Year 11 to be in building from 8:30-1:30 pm Year 10 to learn from home	Year 10 to be in building from 8:30-1:30pm All year 10 students have their first BTEC deadline on the Friday, 31st March. Year 10 students need this time to ensure that their work is completed to the highest standards. The quality of the BTEC assignments and coursework will affect their summer 2024 GCSE results. Therefore, it is vital that all Year 10 are in the building on the Thursday, 16th March. Year 11 to learn from home

In Building Learning

On Wednesday, 15th (Year 11 only) and Thursday, 16th (Year 10 only).

- Students will arrive at 8.30am as normal
- Students are not required to wear uniform
- Students will be provided with a free meal deal at break
- All students to leave the building at 1:30pm
- Students will receive bespoke timetables for the day on their arrival
